City of Detroit Arts and Cultural Map

The City of Detroit Cultural Affairs Department publishes this map for residents, visitors and tourists as a guide for locating at a glance Detroit's arts and cultural facilities. The map is indicative of the range of what Detroit has to offer in the disciplines of architecture, literature, performing and visual arts, and the sciences.

Since they are home to numerous arts and cultural programs and activities, institutions of higher learning and City of Detroit recreation centers are included. As repositories of literature, Detroit's public libraries and select bookstores are on the map. While we could not include all buildings of architectural significance that are listed on the National Register of Historic Places, we have included churches that are so designated because of the popularity of historic church tours in Detroit.

While it is primarily a Detroit city street map, we have included the names, addresses and phone numbers of some major cultural institutions located in neighboring communities The map includes:

· Art, community and cultural centers

 Bookstores · Churches on the National Register of Historic Places

Conservatory

· Universities and Colleges

While the map will be reprinted every two to three years, we invite you to look at regular updates of the map on the Cultural

· Museums and Science Centers

· Theaters and performance venues

• Recreation Centers

Affairs Department's web site at www.cidetroit.mi.us. The Cultural Affairs Department is particularly grateful to AAA Michigan, the City of Detroit Information Technology Services Department, the Cultural Affairs Department Citizens Advisory Committee, and the Detroit Metro Convention and

Visitor's Bureau for their assistance in the preparing, publishing

and distributing this map.
